

All notices about evacuation, closure of the campus and re-opening of the campus will be sent to all members of the Ringling College community via the RCAD Alert system (which distributes via text message, email, and voice message to registered cellular phones). Please be sure your cellular contact information is updated within self-service at my.ringling.edu. Updates will also be posted at www.ringling.edu/alert. Information is also posted with the local media.

2. Students may wish to develop a budget to share driving and hotel expenses with other students.

Prior to any evacuation, students residing on-campus

3. Students/Parents may wish to purchase a refundable plane ticket that can be used during hurricane season or holiday travel.

4. Again, make general plans now. When a storm is approaching the area, talk with your loved ones where you will go.

5. Make sure your loved ones know how to contact you and stay in touch with them throughout the storm.

6. Before leaving campus, be sure to designate an out-of-state family member or friend to serve as your animals behind.

An emergency situation can be frightening, especially when your parents cannot be with you at the time of the emergency. It is your responsibility to be prepared before, during and after the emergency. One way to be prepared is by putting together an emergency supplies kit. Below is a list of essential items that you should prepare to have handy in case of an emergency.

1. Water – pack a three day supply of one gallon per person per day.
2. Non-perishable food
3. Can opener
4. Battery powered hand crank AM/FM radio
5. NOAA Weather radio with extra batteries
6. Flashlight and extra batteries
7. First aid kit
8. Prescription medications
9. Personal hygiene items
